Regulations:

General

1. All set-ups must be completed NO LATER THAN 11:30 AM.
2. All participants should unload and then park their vehicles. No vehicles (except food vendor trailers) will be allowed in the Festival area between 11:30 am and 4:00 pm. It is especially important that no vehicles cross the path of the Bicycle Parade, between 1 and 2 p.m.
3. All participants should be prepared to stay until 4:00 pm. Please do not begin taking down your booths and set-ups until 4:00 pm.
4. All participants will receive a map of the layout of booths, set-ups, and parking areas.
5. All entertainment, exhibits, and merchandise must be consistent with the purpose of the Heritage Festival and with the mission of the Interfaith Center for Peace and Justice.

Food Vendors

1. A fully refundable fee is required of all food vendors. Refunds will be distributed at the Festival.
2. Sale or distribution of alcoholic beverages is prohibited.
3. Park regulations do not allow for the sale of beverages in glass containers.
4. Please use the plastic gloves supplied by the Heritage Festival Committee.
5. Please bring a covered receptacle for disposing of grease—e.g., a large, covered coffee can would be suitable. It is against Park regulations to dispose of grease directly into the dumpster.
6. Please bring an ample supply of food and soft drinks. The Festival continues to grow!
